Night Market

SKY ARMORY

---

Thank you for signing up to be a vendor at this year's May Night Market. We're excited to have you on board – it is because of vendors like you that this event is a success each and every year!

As the date draws closer, please feel free to promote the event on your social channels and encourage your followers to purchase tickets in advance.

This year's event is taking place on Mother's Day weekend, which offers a great opportunity to take mom shopping for her special day!

Included in this email, you can find several graphics to use to promote your involvement at the event. We recommend also encouraging your followers to like the Night Market Facebook and new Instagram page for up-to-date information!

As always, do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions.

What's Up @ SKY Armory

This month, we will be hosting two unique foodie events. Many of you are familiar with our Pop-Up Dining event which includes a local five-course menu, four savory courses and one sweet, paired with wine.

We are now branching out beyond wine - our "Food Meets..." series will showcase a different spirit each month, alongside samples of gourmet food pairings in a stations setting.

We're kicking off the summer season with "Food Meets Rum," outside in the SKY Alley. Grab a friend and come enjoy delicious samples of rum, beautiful weather & live music!
